Who Can Write for Us?

We are looking for exceptional writers who will go the extra mile to provide useful information. We welcome guest post submissions provided they add something to our readers and our website.

We are not after fillers or copied content. We encourage you to speak your mind and provide your content as we will check for originality. We don't accept spun articles or poor content since we strive to offer the best and most comprehensive posts. We want to ensure that our readers have access to the most detailed information to guarantee they will be back for more.

Article Guidelines

- We only accept articles about the Home, plants, and gardening. We had already mentioned in the introduction what types of articles we accept. Suppose you are an expert on home and related topics mentioned above and have some experience regarding one of the above mentioned earlier. In that case, you are most welcome to submit your content. We need well-researched articles that are meant to deliver useful information. If our readers like your articles, we will ask you to submit more.
- We ONLY accept 100% original content. We have access to tools we use to test for originality and uniqueness. If you are going to send spun articles or copied content, we would appreciate it if you don't waste your time or ours. We publish only articles that have been specifically written for our website.

- Please visit our website and take a look at the published articles. You can write How-to articles, share your own real experience, home tips, and tricks, or whatever you think will draw your reader's mind. Just make sure that you follow the theme of the website.
- The article length shouldn't be less than 1000 words. We encourage you to be creative. You can add pictures, infographics, tables, or videos that enrich your content.
- We don't accept articles that have been published elsewhere. Make sure that you submit only original and new content.
- We will allow 1 Do-follow link (Condition Applied) to trustworthy and respectable websites. Please don't link our articles to unethical websites, porn, medical or gambling websites.
- Make sure that your article is readable and interesting. Use the proper formatting and paragraphs to improve readability. You can use lists, bullet points, or whatever you think would make your article easier to read and understand.
- If you agree with our guidelines, we encourage you to start working on your content immediately.
- Please send your article in an email with the subject: "Submission of Article". It might take up to 1 day to review your content and publish it on our website.
- After the article's publication, it becomes Home Affluence's property. You will not have any right to publish, alter, or delete it. We will give you credit by mentioning the author's name; in some special cases, we might publish the author's bio. You can also share it on social media.
- We hold the right to accept or reject any content for any reason.
- Please visit our website here and take a look at our latest content.

How to Submit Your Article?

Please, first mail us your article topic, and we will discuss the details. Then send your article in doc/docs/ format with a minimum of an image and keywords to our email:

haffluence@gmail.com

We will replay in the shortest possible time.

We are looking forward to receiving your content.
